Scrubba Dub
by Nancy van Laan

Rub a Dub Dub

Rub a dub dub,
Three men in a tub.
And who do you think they be?
The butcher, the baker,
The candlestick maker.
And all of them gone to sea.

(Rub baby's belly in a circular motion.)

(Tap belly 3 times).

(Tickle baby.)

Wishy Washy Wee!

Oh, we are two sailors come from over the sea.
If you want to go away again, come along with me.
Oh, wishy-washy, wishy-washy, wishy-washy, WEE!
If you want to go away again, come along with me.

Oh, we like to splash and wash up in the tub.
If you come right in and join us then, scrub-a-dub, a-dub.
Oh, wishy-washy, wishy-washy, wishy-washy, WEE!
If you want to go away again, come along with me.

This Week's Early Literacy Skill: Vocabulary

Vocabulary is knowing the names of things and concepts, feelings, and ideas. Never substitute a familiar word for an unfamiliar one. Researchers have found that children who have heard a lot of different words and have a large vocabulary find it easier to learn to read.

Babies & Books (Birth—17 months) is on Wednesday mornings at 10:00, 10:30, 11:00, & 11:30am
