This Week's Early Literacy Skill: Print Motivation

Print Motivation refers to a child's interest in and enjoyment of books. It is natural for your baby to bite on books. This is how they learn about their world. Gently take the book from his/her mouth, and open the book to show your baby the pictures. Try to make every book encounter a positive experience for your baby.

Babies & Books (Birth—17 months) is on Wednesday mornings at 10:00, 10:30, 11:00, & 11:30am
